DHBW VILLINGEN-SCHWENNINGEN

The Duale Hochschule Baden-Wuerttemberg in Villingen-Schwenningen lies in the heart of the beautiful Black Forest region. The dual concept of the university integrates companies and social institutions as active partners in higher education, and therefore fosters graduates of high quality and employability.

At our university, students benefit from a well-equipped modern campus, highly qualified teaching staff, freelance trainers, consultants and executives who contribute cutting-edge knowledge and expertise from their professional fields. The DHBW VS is known for its close relations with companies and employers and the wide range of amenities supporting the students' intellectual development.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The IC organises excursions and events for international students and is an opportunity to meet German students who are interested in an international environment. Most members have been abroad and are familiar with the special situations that might arise when living in a foreign country.

International Semester

Information for partner institutions and students

March - June / September - December

INTERNATIONAL SEMESTER

The International Semester at DHBW Villingen-Schwenningen takes place twice a year from the end of March to June and from the end of September to December. Both semesters are taught in English.

The International Semester starts with a two-day introduction to academic life in Germany.

Students are consulted individually on their course selection. The semester is designed to challenge and inspire an international mix of students at a university known for its dual system of higher education and close relations with employers.

Studies in Villingen-Schwenningen include cultural and social activities as part of the experience through company visits and excursions to the beautiful Black Forest region and beyond.

COURSES

Students from partner universities can choose from a variety of lectures, workshops and seminars, all of which are taught in English and have a highly interactive approach. Every international semester comprises different modules taught in English, as well as language classes, e.g. German, French, Spanish. Many courses involve innovative learning methods such as Blended Learning.

The courses available cover a wide range of subjects, from Cross-Cultural Competence to International Logistics, Marketing Management and language classes. They all give students the opportunity to interact with people from a variety of backgrounds while experiencing academic life in Germany.

Small classes guarantee the best possible outcome for all students. All courses are taught by lecturers, trainers, consultants and executives who contribute cutting-edge knowledge and expertise from their professional fields.
